

Satellite Event of the EWG ETHICS AND OR on Saturday 21 June 2025 in cooperation with the 34th EURO conference in Leeds UK from 2 to 6 pm.

Like every year we organize also this year the Satellite Event of the EWG ETHICS AND OR on Saturday 21 June 2025 in cooperation with the 34th EURO conference in Leeds UK.

For this Satellite Event we invite you as chairs and/or leading scientists of other EWG groups to reflect on adjacent subjects such as decision support, sustainable development, and development in developing countries. There will be up to / around 20 people, all attenders of the EURO 2025 conference.

Meeting each other this way, we are able to discuss among our colleagues high interesting new developments and questions in our fields. These Satellite meetings are highly appreciated among the attendees of the other EWG groups of the EURO conference. As always, the presentations will be published in a Book of Abstracts, together with the regular presentations of our Ethics EWG group of the conference.

When you are registered at the 34th EURO conference in Leeds UK you are welcome to join this special event. Please send an (different) abstract to
